

Save the Date

May 2017 | Sydney, Australia 3RD INTERNATIONAL ACADEMIC LABOUR RELATIONS CONFERENCE

The Australian Higher Education Industrial Association (AHEIA), Canada's Faculty Bargaining Services (FBS) and UK's Universities and Colleges Employers' Association (UCEA) are pleased to announce that the Third International Conference co-hosted by these three employer associations will be held in Sydney from Monday May 1st - Friday May 5th 2017 (including study visits to Australian universities).

Australian
Higher
Education
Industrial Association

UNIVERSITIES & COLLEGES
EMPLOYERS ASSOCIATION

Faculty
Bargaining
Services

ABOUT SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA

SYDNEY IS AUSTRALIA'S OLDEST & BIGGEST CITY, FAMOUS FOR ITS WARM SUNNY CLIMATE AND PHYSICAL ALLURE. ITS ARRAY OF WORLD CLASS RESTAURANTS, LAID-BACK OUTDOOR LIFESTYLE AND FRIENDLY OUTGOING PEOPLE MAKE SYDNEY A POPULAR TRAVEL DESTINATION FOR VISITORS FROM AROUND THE GLOBE.

IMAGE COURTESY OF BUSINESS EVENTS SYDNEY

Previous conference themes include Managing the Academic Workforce: Global Challenges and Opportunities (London 2012) and In Pursuit of Institutional Success & Sustainability: Directions for Our Academic Workforce (Vancouver 2014). The theme for Sydney 2017 will be confirmed in due course. The conference will provide an excellent opportunity to consider current issues and future directions in labour relations in Higher Education institutions from an international perspective. It is anticipated that delegates will be drawn from Australia, Canada and the United Kingdom, as well as from Europe and the United States, thereby enriching the conference experience.

To register your interest in receiving further information on the conference, when available, please email Henry Wong (henry.wong@iheia.edu.au) at AHEIA.