

Managing Performance Higher Education

Learning Outcomes

- Explain in your own terms what ‘performance management’ means
- List some of the key steps required to effectively communicate expectations
- Discuss the planning and structure of informal and formal performance management conversations
- Identify the key legal considerations for employers when managing poor performance
- Discuss the importance of applying the relevant university policies, procedures and agreement clauses when managing performance